

BLESSINGS FROM יְהוָה (YAHUAH)

Barakal (baw-rak-al) יְבַרְכֶּנּוּ Strong's # 1292: Al (El) does Barak (Bless).

BLESSING (Barakah) (ב Bet = In, house ר Resh = First, Beginning כ Kaph = Bend, Open, Tame, פ = Look, Reveal)

Barakah (Barakah) יְבַרְכֶּנּוּ Strong's # 1293: (bar-aw-kaw') Blessing, gift, Praise unto יְהוָה (Yahuah), treaty of Shalum; from root; Barak (baw-rak') 1288: Bless, to kneel or bow, to give reverence to יְהוָה (Yahuah) as an act of adoration, implies a continual conscious giving place to יְהוָה (Yahuah), to be tuned into him and his presence.

The English dictionary lists the primary definition of the term Blessing not wealth or comfort, but rather “being made Qadosh (holy).” Since we are made Qadosh (holy) through salvation in וְיָשׁוּב (Yahusha) HaMashiach, in essence, the truest form of being Baruk (Blessed) is to be made aware of our wretched state, led to repentance, sanctified for Righteousness, and to one day receive the crown of righteousness. All other earthly Barakah (Blessings) should greatly pale in comparison to this!

This Barakah (Blessing) is connected to the knowledge that יְהוָה (Yahuah) is at work to direct us in the right path. יְהוָה (Yahuah)'s chastisement is actually a display of His love for us, like a parent who disciplines a child who plays in the middle of the street.

In the Brit Hadashah (NT), there are (2) two primary Greek words translated as “Blessing.”

1). Makarios (mak-ar'-ee-os) Strong's #3107: carries the meaning of being fortunate, well off: Blessed, happy(ier). happiness.

Genesis 27:35 “Your brother came deceitfully and took your Barakah (Blessing).

Genesis 27:41 Esau held a grudge against Ya'aqob (Jacob) because of the Barakah (Blessing) his father had given him. And Esau said in his heart: “The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then I will kill my brother Ya'aqob (Jacob).”

Real Barakah (Blessings) are obtainable only through obedience to יְהוָה (Yahuah), as He petitions all who choose to follow Him!

The first (1st) step to understanding "Barakah (Blessings)" is to read scripture for yourself. You will find as the story unfolds that there is an ending. The ending does not include any part of your earthly stature or your personal holdings measured as "wealth". None of this goes with you. But the ending is exactly what is important. So if you want to be part of those survivors who are "inside the gates" (Revelation 22:14), a part of the Kingdom of יְהוָה (Yahuah) (Luke 4:43), AND enjoying Barakah (Blessings) during your earthly existence (Luke 11:28), start dedicating your heart to the pure and honest willful obedience יְהוָה (Yahuah) asks of you.

Barakah (Blessings) are tied to obedience from the beginning to the end of scripture - Genesis to Revelation.

Abraham is told in Genesis 12:2-3 "I will make of you a great nation, I will Barak (Bless) you, and I will make your name great; and you are to be a Barakah (Blessing). I will Barak (Bless) those who Barak (Bless) you, but I will curse anyone who curses you; and by you all the families of the earth will be Baruk (Blessed)."

If you want to start experiencing real Barakah (Blessings), commit yourself to simple obedience to יְהוָה (Yahuah).

BLESS (Barak) – ב Bet = In, house ר Resh = First, Beginning כ Kaph = Bend, Open, Tame)

Barak- Strong's # 1288: Phonetic Spelling: (baw-rak') Bless, to kneel or bow, to give reverence to יְהוָה (Yahuah) as an act of adoration, implies a continual conscious giving place to יְהוָה (Yahuah), to be tuned into him and his presence. The Hebrew word most often translated "Bless" is Barak, which can mean to Praise (Hallu), congratulate, or salute. Bless can even be used to mean a curse, thus we use the Hebrew word Barak to be most clear and accurate of our intentions through our statements.

Genesis 1:22 And I will Barak (Bless) them that Barak (Bless).

Genesis 12:3 I will Barak (Bless) them who Barak (Bless) you and curse him who curses you, and in you all families of the earth will be Baruk (Blessed)."

Genesis 22:17 I will indeed Barak (Bless) you and I will indeed multiply your descendants as the stars of the Shamym (Heavens) and as the sand that is on the seashore. Your descendants will possess the gate of their enemies.

Psalms 34:1 I will Barak (Bless) יְהוָה (Yahuah) at all times; His Halal (Praise) shall continually be in my mouth.

Psalms 100:4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with Halal (praise). Be thankful to him, and Barak (Bless) his name.

Psalms 95:6 Oh come, let us worship and bow down; Let us kneel before יְהוָה (Yahuah) our maker.

Luke 6:28 Barak (Bless) those who curse you, and pray for those who spitefully use you.

Genesis 17:16 I will Barak (Bless) her and also give you a son by her. I will Barak (Bless) her, and she will be the mother of nations. Kings of peoples will come from her."

We know Ya'aqob (Jacob) wrestled with Aluhym, and so Aluhym said, "Let Me go, for the day breaks." But he [Ya'aqob] said, "I am not letting You go Until You Barak (Bless) me!" So I believe Aluhym gave Ya'aqob a hint as to what needed to be asked in order to be Baruk (Blessed) by setting an example "So He asked him, "What is YOUR NAME" and he said, "Ya'aqob (Jacob)." "And He said, "Your name is no longer called Ya'aqob, but Yasharal (Israel) because you have strived with Aluhym and men, and have overcome." So notice what happens in the following verse (29), "And Ya'aqob asked Him ..." A very important question! Hardly anyone ask of Aluhym..., he asked Him: "Please "Let me know your Name"!!!

Aluhym ask "Why do you ask about My Name", I believe he asked this question because Aluhym wanted to know if Ya'aqob understood the importance of what's in a name! "and He Baruk (Blessed) him there"! This is why He later states, "Thus they shall PUT MY NAME on the children of Yasharal (Israel), and I myself shall Barak (Bless) them." The Barakah (Blessing) is connected to His Name and not to a title!

אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) does not command the Kohanim (Priests) to Barak (Bless) the people using their own words, but rather provides the exact formulation for the Barakah (Blessing), prefacing the instructions with the words: “This is how you Barak (Bless) the children of Yasharal (Israel).” "Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, 'This is the way you shall Barak (Bless) the children of Yasharal Say to them: 24 "אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) Barak (Bless) you and keep you; 25 אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) make His face shine upon you, And be gracious to you; 26 אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) lift up His countenance upon you, And give you Shalum (Peace)."' 27 "So they shall put My name on the children of Yasharal and I will Barak (Bless) them."(Numbers 6:23-27)

This reveals that the Barakah (Blessing) comes from אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) Himself, and We are but the means of transmitting His gracious will.

If you want a Barakah (Blessing), start acknowledging His Name! Start reinstating the key of knowledge – His Name, just as the Mashaiach (Messiah) וַיְהוָה (Yahusha) (Luke 11:52/ John 17:6)

BLESSED (Baruk) – בָּרֵךְ (בּ Bet = In, house, רֵשׁ Resh = First, Beginning – ם Uau (Vav) = Add, secure, hook, כָּפּ Kaph = Bend, Open, Tame).

Baruk- (bar-uk') Strong's # 1263, Blessed (4), kneeling (1) "To be Baruk (Blessed)" means 'to be favored by אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah)'s. Barakah (Blessings) therefore are directly associated with אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) and come from אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah).

The Hebrew word for blessed (Baruk) conveys the idea of being strengthened, of our weakness being compensated for with אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah)'s strength. The meaning of its root Barak is “to kneel, bless, praise, salute.

The Knee which is one of the weakest parts of the body; i.e. the English idiom for “weak in the knees.” You can see even in English the relationship between the two (2) words “knee” and “kneel.” In our weakness, we kneel before אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) and He provides His strength (Blessing). Thus a Barakah (Blessing) from אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah) is empowerment to be able to do what is not within our natural capabilities.

The English Meaning of Blessed has several definitions in the English language, according to the Oxford Advanced Learner's Dictionary:

- “Made holy; consecrated”
- “Endowed, with divine favor and protection”
- “Bringing pleasure or relief as a welcome contrast to what one has previously experienced”

The Greek definition of the word “Blessed” comes from makários. This describes a believer as being in an enviable position for receiving אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah)'s provisions (favor) – as being an extension of his Chen (grace). This happens with receiving אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah)'s in-birthing of Amunah (faith).

The Beatitudes of Matthew 5 and Luke 6 describe the happy state of those who find their purpose and fulfillment in אֲיָאֵל (Yahuah).

THE EIGHT (8) BEATITUDES

Baruk (Blessed) are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of Shamym (Heavens).

Baruk (Blessed) are they who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Baruk (Blessed) are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Baruk (Blessed) are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

Baruk (Blessed) are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Baruk (Blessed) are the pure of heart, for they shall see Aluhym.

Baruk (Blessed) are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of Aluhym.

Baruk (Blessed) are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of Shamym (Heavens)." Matthew 5:3-10

Does this sound like OWYAZL (Yahusha) was providing anything new that was not taught from the Tanakh (OT) to those who came before Him? Who hunger for righteousness? Who are the pure in heart? Who will see AYAZL (Yahuah)? The disobedient? No the obedient!

Romans 4:6-8 ties this happy Barakah (Blessing) to those whose sins are forgiven, for they know the relationship to AYAZL (Yahuah) has been restored.

2). Eulogeo, Strong's # 2127: eulogeo (pronounced yoo-log-eh'-o) from a compound of 2095 and 3056; to speak well of, to Barak (Bless), Halal (Praise) focuses more on good words or the good report that others give of someone and also describes the Barakah (Blessing) that we say over our food (Matthew 26:26).

This word is where we get our English word "eulogy," in which we speak well of one who has passed away. Ephesians 1:3 Baruk (Blessed) be the Aluhym (God) and Father of our Adon (Master) OWYAZL (Yahusha) HaMashiach, who has Baruk (Blessed) us in Mashiach (Messiah) with every spiritual Barakah (Blessing) in the heavenly places, Barak (Bless) AYAZL (Yahuah) for all the Barakah (Blessings) that He gives us in OWYAZL (Yahusha, and 1 Peter 3:9 Do not repay evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary, Barak (Bless), for to this you were called, that you may obtain a Barakah (Blessing). Instructs us to Barak (bless) those who mistreat us, because we were called to receive a Barakah (Blessing) from AYAZL (Yahuah).

Bringing these together, we see that a Barakah (Blessing) is a statement of good will and happiness that is said about another, as well as the condition that fulfills those good words. Statements of Barakah (Blessings) are a wish for AYAZL (Yahuah) to restore His favor on others or a declaration of His inherent goodness. The ultimate Barakah (Blessing) that AYAZL (Yahuah) has given is the new life and forgiveness that comes through Amunah (Faith) in His Son, OWYAZL (Yahusha) HaMashiach. The material Barakah (Blessings) we enjoy from day to day are temporary, but the spiritual Barakah (Blessings) available to us in OWYAZL (Yahusha) encompass time and eternity, as well as material and immaterial things. As the Psalmist said, "Baruk (Blessed) is he whose help is the Aluhym (God) of Ya'aqob (Jacob), whose hope is in AYAZL (Yahuah) his Aluhym (God)" Psalm 146:5.

Most commonly you hear the phrase "I am Blessed" in reference to good fortune, a desired outcome, or comfort. In fact, I myself have often used it in this way. It's certainly true that the earthly gifts we receive, such as comforts, desired outcomes, success, and the friendships we enjoy, are all Barakah (Blessings) from AYAZL (Yahuah). These undeserved Barakah (Blessings), which AYAZL (Yahuah) pours out on all people through his chen (unmerited favor), ought to be received with Yahad (Thanksgiving) and Halal (Praise), leading us to find joy as we esteem אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) through them. In our flesh, however, we are often prone to attitudes of entitlement, pride, and seeking happiness in worldly circumstances.

Job 5:17 declares “Baruk (Blessed) is the man whom אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) corrects; so do not despise the discipline of the Almighty.”

James 1:25 But one who looks intently at the perfect Turah (law), the Turah (law) of liberty, and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but an effectual doer, this man will be Baruk (Blessed) in what he does.

Genesis 9:1 And אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) Baruk (Blessed) Noah and his sons.

Daniel 2:19 Then Daniel Baruk (Blessed) the Aluhym of Shamym (Heavens)

Daniel 4:34 and I Baruk (Blessed) the most High, And אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) Baruk (Blessed) them

Psalms 1:1-3 “Baruk (Blessed) is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers. But his delight is in the Turah of אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah), and on his Turah he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers.” The book of Psalms is full of references to this kind of happy Barakah (blessing) for those who love and fear אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) Aluhym (God).

Deuteronomy 28:1-12 Now it shall come to pass, if you diligently obey the voice of אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) your Aluhym (God), to observe carefully all His commandments which I command you today, that אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) your Aluhym (God) will set you high above all nations of the earth. 2 And all these Barakah (Blessings) shall come upon you and overtake you, because you obey the voice of אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) your Aluhym (God): 3 Baruk (Blessed) shall you be in the city, and Baruk (Blessed) shall you be in the country. 4 Baruk (Blessed) shall be the fruit of your body, the produce of your ground and the increase of your herds, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flocks. 5 Baruk (Blessed) shall be your basket and your kneading bowl. 6 Baruk (Blessed) shall you be when you come in, and Baruk (blessed) shall you be when you go out. 7 "אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before your face; they shall come out against you one way and flee before you (7) seven ways. 8 אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) will command the Barakah (Blessing) on you in your storehouses and in all to which you set your hand, and He will Barak (Bless) you in the land which אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) your Aluhym (God) is giving you. 9 אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) will establish you as a Qadosh (Holy) people to Himself, just as He has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) your Aluhym (God) and walk in His ways. 10 Then all peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah), and they shall be afraid of you. 11 And אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) will grant you plenty of goods, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your ground, in the land of which אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) swore to your fathers to give you. 12 אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) will open to you His good treasure, the Shamyim (Heavens), to give the rain to your land in its season, and to Barak (Bless) all the work of your hand. You shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. 13 And אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) will make you the head and not the tail; you shall be above only, and not be beneath, if you heed the commandments of אַיָּהוָה (Yahuah) your Aluhym (God), which I command you today, and are careful to observe them. 14 So you shall not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right or the left, to go after other Aluhym (gods) to serve them.

Genesis 1:22 Then אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Baruk (Blessed) them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let the birds multiply on the earth.”

Genesis 1:28 אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Baruk (Blessed) them and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves on the earth.”

Genesis 9:1 Then אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Baruk (Blessed) Noah and his sons and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth.

Genesis 14:19 And he Baruk (blessed) him and said, “Baruk (Blessed) be Abram by אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Most High, Creator of Shamyim (Heavens) and earth;

Genesis 14:20 and Baruk (Blessed) be אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand.” Then Abram gave him a tenth (10th) of everything.

Genesis 18:18 since Abraham will surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be Baruk (Blessed) in him?

Genesis 24:35 אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) has greatly Baruk (Blessed) my master, and he has become wealthy. He has given him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and male and female servants, and camels and donkeys.

Revelation 1:3 "Baruk (Blessed) is he that reads, and they who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep the things that are written in it; for the time is near."

Revelation 3:15-19 I know your works: you are neither cold nor hot. that you were neither cold or hot! So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth. For you say, I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing, not realizing that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked. I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, so that you may be rich, and white garments so that you may clothe yourself and the shame of your nakedness may not be seen, and anoint your eyes with ointment, so that you may see. Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline, so be zealous and repent.

This, of course, presents a problem for a believer when they suddenly find themselves in circumstances that fall short of the Baruk (blessed) life they expected. They struggle to understand why, when they have chosen to obey and follow Mashiach, they see non-believers all around them earning job promotions, succeeding in their efforts (even at the expense of others), buying the big houses, and seeming to flourish in all they do.

Because of this, we must anchor ourselves in what is true, rather than what we see. For while it can be tempting to look at the surface level of peoples’ lives and struggle to understand why they seem to be flourishing, we must remember that this may be blinding them from their need for a Savior and leaving them unfulfilled and empty.

Scripture declares that this life will be filled with suffering, hardships, and dying to ourselves and our earthly desires. If we do not re-frame our thinking to view our circumstances through the eyes of the incredible Barakah (Blessings) and assurances we have in וְיָשׁוּא (Yahusha), we will quickly question אֵיָאֵל (Yahuah)’s goodness and love when earthly “Barakah (Blessings)” seem to fall on everyone but us.

Believers today are accustomed to comfort and wealth that they have an incredibly low tolerance for pain and inconvenience. That means we must work extra hard at keeping the truth of who we are, what we deserve, and the true Barakah (Blessings) that we have in וְיָשׁוּא (Yahusha) before us at all time. וְיָשׁוּא (Yahusha) can reshape our entitled perspectives through the power of his Word and the Ruch Ah Qudesh. This will also prepare and equip us for the trials, disappointments, and overwhelming circumstances that we are guaranteed to face as we travel the road set apart unto אֵיָאֵל (Yahuah).

So let’s freshly remind ourselves of how Baruk (blessed) we are because of the truth of אֵיָאֵל (Yahuah)’s Word.

In וְיָשׁוּא (Yahusha), we are loved, chosen, redeemed, forgiven, freed, sanctified, and promised an eternal inheritance with all the riches, esteem, and character of our Savior. For the esteem of אֵיָאֵל (Yahuah), we are Baruk (Blessed). May we all proclaim how truly Baruk (Blessed) we are as we see him more deeply in us, even through circumstances that seem far from being Barakah (Blessings).

For it is better to be desperately poor and weak in the eyes of the world and eternally Baruk (Blessed) in the esteem of OWYAZL (Yahusha), than to be abundantly Baruk (Blessed) in earthly measures and found naked and poor before the judgment seat of OWYAZL (Yahusha).

Baruk (Blessed) is the True Judge. Baruk (Blessed) are You, AYAZL (Yahuah) our Aluhym (God), King of the universe, the True Judge.

Time after time we talk about receiving a Barakah (Blessing). Believers and non-believers alike desire to be Baruk (Blessed). And why not? A Barakah (Blessing) by definition implies some measure of prosperity as received from the Almighty. Prosperity by definition implies a successful, flourishing, or thriving condition. In today's climate, many people assess a person's Barakah (Blessings) in light of their material possessions. However, the Barakah (blessing) that AYAZL (Yahuah) bestows upon His people has little if anything to do with material prosperity. AYAZL (Yahuah)'s Barakah (Blessing) is one that allows the recipient to have success, flourish, and thrive in the spiritual sphere of their existence.

It is AYAZL (Yahuah)'s desire to bestow a Barakah (Blessing) upon all of His creation. However, the receipt of this Barakah (Blessing) is contingent upon the recipient meeting certain requirements. In the book of Tehillim (Psalms 24:3-5), the psalmist asks a question - "Who does go up into the mountain of AYAZL (Yahuah)? And who does stand in His set-apart place? He who has innocent hands and a clean heart, who did not bring his life to naught, and did not swear deceivngly. He receives a Barkah (Blessing) from AYAZL (Yahuah) and righteousness from the Aluhym of his deliverance."

The question insinuates the inherent set-apart nature of AYAZL (Yahuah) and His dwelling place. It also insinuates the necessity of the individual desiring to enter AYAZL (Yahuah)'s presence to meet that same standard of set-apartness that emanates from AYAZL (Yahuah).

The psalmist does not leave us without the answer to the question. We are explicitly told who will be able to enter into the dwelling place of AYAZL (Yahuah), and stand in His presence. The broader requirements are innocent hands and a clean heart. The more specific requirements are a life that has not been brought to naught and not swearing deceivngly. The innocent hands simply represent actions that are free from unrighteousness. Hands that are not innocent indicate the external acts of sin. These external acts of sin include the obvious unrighteous acts such as murder, covetousness, lying, fornication, stealing, etc,... However, there are some not so obvious acts of unrighteousness that our hands can be guilty of committing. Acts of unrighteousness that can make for hands that are not innocent; and, thus prevent us from standing in AYAZL (Yahuah)'s presence and ultimately receiving a Barakah (Blessing) from Him (Psalms 15). In the book of YashaYahu (Isaiah 1:15-17), AYAZL (Yahuah) declares "And when you spread out your hands, I hide My eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I do not hear. Your hands have become filled with blood. Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes. Stop doing evil. Learn to be Qadosh!"

Our actions and our interactions must be righteous in every aspect. Our daily interactions with others must also be without anger and without contention. Shaul (Paul) states in the book of (I Timothy 2:8), "So I resolve that the men pray everywhere, lifting up hands that are set-apart, without wrath and disputing." When we lift up our hands in prayer and in worship, we should be able to lift them unashamed. Committing external acts of unrighteousness prevents our prayers from being answered, hinders any hope of spiritual success in our lives, and ultimately condemns us to eternal separation from אַיָּהּ (Yahuah). “Change my heart, O אַיָּהּ (Yahuah). Make it ever true. Change my heart, O אַיָּהּ (Yahuah). Make it more like you.” This little should be the sentiment of the heart of every believer.

The heart is the entity in which rests our desires, motives, and thoughts. Inward set-apartness or the lack thereof, is predicated upon the condition of our heart. The innocence of our hands affirms the cleanness of our hearts. So without a clean heart you cannot expect to have innocent hands. The psalmist prays to אַיָּהּ (Yahuah) for a clean heart. “Create in me a clean heart, O Aluhym (God).” (Psalm 51:10) We must recognize that the a clean heart is not an inherent feature of mankind. Scripture emphatically lets us know that the heart is “desperately wicked.” We must look to אַיָּהּ (Yahuah) for the renovation that must be done on our heart. אַיָּהּ (Yahuah) will take out the heart of stone and give us a heart of flesh - a heart that can be easily entreated by His Ruach (Spirit).

He will give us a heart to know His instruction - a heart that is new. However, once אַיָּהּ (Yahuah) has given us a clean heart, it is our responsibility to keep it clean. We do that by filling our heart with the things that will make for righteous execution. The Torah of אַיָּהּ (Yahuah) must be in our hearts to execute His righteousness. “The Torah of אַיָּהּ (Yahuah) is in his (the righteous person) heart; his steps do not slide.” Psalm 37:31

So for all those individuals who think that the Torah is not applicable today, you have no hope of executing righteousness without it. Consistent study of the word is also imperative if an individual desires to walk in righteousness. The psalmist said, “I have treasured up Your word in my heart, that I might not sin against You.” Psalm 119:11

If we truly desire the Barakah (Blessing) of spiritual success we must daily meet the requirements. We cannot ascend into the mountain of אַיָּהּ (Yahuah) with unclean hands and an unclean heart. We cannot dwell in His set-apart place if we live our lives to satisfy our flesh or if we are not honest in our communication and actions. It is up to us to make sure we have prepared ourselves for entrance into אַיָּהּ (Yahuah)'s presence. That is where the Barakah (Blessing) is - in His presence. For in His presence is where we receive His righteousness. This is the ultimate Barakah (Blessing) for the children of אַיָּהּ (Yahuah).

Matthew 21:9 "Baruk (Blessed) is he that comes in the Name of אַיָּהּ (Yahuah);" Hosanna in the highest, the word hosanna should not be there for it simply means a good omen, a phenomenon. The correct word is yasha' which would read He that saves, for it is אַיָּהּ (Yahuah) that saves. Before Mashiach ascended He descended and אַיָּהּ (Yahuah) gave gifts unto men after his ascension into the Shamyim (Heavens). He imparted unto men the profound gifts of anointing that would bring forth the excellence of His truth through his imparting of his Ruch Ah Qudesh. The excellence of אַיָּהּ (Yahuah)'s truth liberates us and it separates us from the power of the world that our dependency is not on anything but the truth of אַיָּהּ (Yahuah).

John 17:11 O WYָּהּ (Yahusha) prayed unto Abba אַיָּהּ (Yahuah), as His time in the world was expiring and He knew that He must suffer a tremendous death on the stake, He said these are left in the world to combat the forces of darkness and Sheol, to withstand everything vile and evil to make sure that this truth that I have presented unto them is established and it must begin in their own hearts.

There in the hearts is where the truth is established. OWYAE (Yahusha) said I am coming unto you Abba AEAE (Yahuah) that YOU would keep them in your own Name, that they may be one as we are. That they may walk in the one Ruch, one mind, one heart and one desire that is the kingdom of AEAE (Yahuah).

AEAE (Yahuah) kept every last one of them in His Name. OWYAE (Yahusha) said that You keep them that are left in the world in Your OWN Name. The word "own" is a possession. So Abba must possess a Name.

OWYAE (Yahusha) did not come in any other Name except AEAE (Yahuah) and that is why the Yahudym reject that. They will not see the power of AEAE (Yahuah) until they declare that, Baruk (Blessed) is he that comes in the Name of AEAE (Yahuah). He did not come in the name of the lord or god, for they are pagan. When you understand the etymology and the purpose of those pagan expressions you will not call your ABBA those names any longer. You cannot know anyone but by a name. You cannot have an identity without a name. Scripture says a name, a precious name, a name of honour is rather to be chosen than silver and gold.

For I say unto you, You shall not see Me henceforth, till you shall say, Baruk (Blessed) is he that comes in the Name of AEAE (Yahuah).
