

Fear Not, do not be afraid

People fear all sorts of strange and perhaps trivial things. But what do you fear? What are your greatest, deepest, most horrifying fears? Fear of loss? Fear of losing something or someone? Fear of the future? Fear of humiliation or failure? Fear of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s judgement? Fear of death? Fear of eternal judgement? What do you fear?

Fear from obedience or Fear from disobedience H3372 Yare (yaw-ray); a primitive root; to fear; more to revere; honor, cause to frighten; to stand in awe of; to be afraid of; From Yare (H3373) to fear; revere, reverence, dreadful. The word picture of the Hebrew letters tells us that you will fear the hand that you see.

Fear means: To be afraid of; to have a strong emotion caused by anticipation or awareness of danger; the flowing or quivering of the gut from fear or awe; to dread what is terrible or revere what is respected.

So אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) reassures his people. For a time they will suffer his punishment. They will face many horrific situations. But אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) will not abandon them. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; Isaiah 43:2. Do not be afraid, for I am with you.

Belonging to אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah): foundations of fearlessness

But how are אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s people going to know that all of this is not just wishful thinking? He gives them concrete truths to build their amanah (faith) on; solid reasons not to be fearful.

There are six aspects in which אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s people belong to him.

First (1st), he reminds his people that they belong to him because they are created. Of course, אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) created everything, and that gives him the right of ownership over every soul on the earth. But in a special sense he formed his people over and above everything else.

Second (2nd), אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s people belong to him because they are redeemed. Fear not, for I have redeemed you... To redeem something means to pay a price to get it back.

The exact historical references here are debated. But אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s intention is clear: no price is too great for אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) to pay to redeem his people; He is able and willing to do so and he did, he gave his Son to redeem his chosen believers.

Third (3rd), אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s people are called and chosen. Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned [or called] you by name....

אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) takes all the initiative with his people. He summons and calls them. They haven't approached him, begging to be his people; he has summoned them and made them his people.

אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s people had no role in their creation. אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s people had no role in their redemption. אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) started all this by his call. So their existence doesn't depend on their efforts or their circumstances, only on אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s sovereign initiative. Which is a great comfort to a feeble and sinful people.

Fourth (4th), אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s people belong to him in relationship. Fear not... you are mine. אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s people belong to him for the reasons we have seen.

But it's not all one way. For I am אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah), your Aluah (God), the Kadosh (Holy) One of Yisrael, your Saviour. Notice the personal references. "I am אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah), YOUR Aluah (God)".

אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) said, you are mine. Here he says, I am yours. אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s people belong to him, and he belongs to them. This is not a master-slave relationship. It's more like a marriage: a mutual commitment to one to another. They are his people, and He is their Aluah (God).

Fifth (5th), his people are loved. We see that this relationship is no mere formality, Since you are precious and honoured in my sight, and because I love you. אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s passion for his people is breathtaking. In his sight they are precious and honoured and he simply loves them!

They have done absolutely nothing to deserve this love. The Tanakh (OT) Yisrael was rarely lovely, and almost never faithful. But nevertheless, אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) loved them! He knows all their faults and blemishes, yet, like a bridegroom on his wedding day, he sees his bride only as precious and glorious, and he loves her.

Sixth (6th), his people belong to him because they are adopted. אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) calls his people his sons and daughters. Bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the ends of the earth. He has actually declared them family. he has adopted them and changed their name to his: אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) said: they are called by my Name.

So, אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s people belong to him in all these ways. They are created, redeemed, called & chosen, in relationship, loved and adopted. These are the grounds for his Command; Do not be afraid.

Whatever floods and fires and flame the people of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) have to face, he will never give up on them: Fear not... you are mine. He is with them throughout: Do not be afraid, for I am with you.

In OWHYAH (Yahusha): fearlessness fulfilled

The prohibition uttered more frequently than any other by OWHYAH (Yahusha) is the command, “Fear not ...” He said this so often to His disciples and others He encountered that it almost came to sound like a greeting. Where most people greet others by saying “Hi” or “Hello,” the first words of OWHYAH (Yahusha) often were “Fear not.”

Why? Perhaps OWHYAH (Yahusha)'s preference for those words grew out of His acute sense of the thinly veiled fear that grips all who approach the living Aluah (God). We fear His power, we fear His wrath, and most of all we fear His ultimate rejection.

The assurance we need the most is the assurance of Salvation. Though we do not like to think much about it or contemplate it deeply, we know if only intuitively that the worst catastrophe that could ever befall us is to be visited by אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)'s final punitive wrath.

Many believe that assurance of eternal Salvation is neither possible nor even to be sought. Yet, if אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) declares that it is possible to have full assurance of Salvation and even Commands that we seek after it, then it would be supremely arrogant for one to deny or neglect it. In fact, אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) does command us to make our calling and election sure: “Therefore, my brothers, be all the more eager to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never fall.” 2 Peter 1:10.

This command admits of no justifiable neglect. It addresses a crucial matter. The question, “Am I truly Saved?” This is one of the most important questions I can ever ask myself. I need to know the answer; I must know the answer. This is not something of little value, substance, or importance. Without the assurance of Salvation the believers life is unstable. It is vulnerable and allows the wolf of heresy to camp on the doorstep. Progress in sanctification requires a firm foundation in Amanah (faith). Assurance is the cement of that foundation. Without it, the foundation crumbles.

How, then, do we receive assurance? The Scripture declares that the Ruach HaKodesh bears witness with our Ruach (spirit) that we are the children of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah). This inner testimony of the Ruach HaKodesh is as vital as it is complex. The Ruach (Spirit) gives His testimony with the Word and through the Word, never against the Word or without the Word.

Through Isaiah, אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) says to his chosen believers, Fear not, you are mine, and, Do not be afraid for I am with you. And we can be completely confident of that because of Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha).

I just want to touch all too briefly on each of these six encouragements from אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) again to see how they apply to us in Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha).

First (1st), Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha) says to Peter, on this rock I will build my body of believers, and the gates of gehenna will not overcome it.

Second (2nd), Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha) has redeemed us. Ultimately, אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) did not exchange people for us, he exchanged a person, his Son. 1 Peter 1:18, For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed... but with the precious blood of HaMashiach (The Messiah), a lamb without blemish or defect.

Third (3rd), Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha) calls us. Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha) takes the initiative in our lives. It was he who said "follow me". Not because of anything we had done, but simply for his own sake. Romans 1:6, you also are among those who are called to belong to Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha) HaMashiach.

Fourth (4th), Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha) is the content and ground of our relationship with אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah). In John 14:20, Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha) says, On that day you will realise that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. We are in him and he is in us. We belong to him, but he also belongs to us. We have an intimate relationship with Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha).

Fifth (5th), it is in Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha) that we truly know we are loved. There are so many verses I could go to to demonstrate this point. But how about this, This is how אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) showed his love among us: He sent his one (1) and only Son into the world that we might live through him, 1 John 4:9.

Sixth (6th), in Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha), we are adopted as אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)'s children. Galatians 3:26 You are all sons of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) through amanah (faith) in Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha) HaMashiach.

When in our lives we pass through flood or fire or flame, אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)'s word to us is Do not be afraid, for I am with you, and the guarantee of that word is Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha). Every word of comfort אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) speaks to his people through Isaiah is deepened and strengthened to us in Oװַיָּאֵל (Yahusha).

Perhaps the best summary of all of this is the famous passage in Romans 8. Who shall separate us from the love of Mashiach (Messiah)? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? ... For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither Malakym (angels) nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) that is in אֱלֹהֵינוּ (Yahusha) HaMashiach our Adon (lord). Do not be afraid, for I am with you.

אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) never promises us an easy, comfortable or pain-free life in this world. This world is a harsh place to live in and there are many things to fear. But, in אֱלֹהֵינוּ (Yahusha), אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) promise not to abandon us. Do not be afraid, for I am with you.

Our best weapon against fear in our lives is our Scriptures. אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) comforted his people by his word through Isaiah; he comforts us by all his words in the scriptures.

The Fear of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)

Matthew 10:28 – Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather be afraid of the One who can destroy both soul and body in gehenna (everlasting fire, which is the 2nd death).

Luke 12:4-5 – ‘I tell you, my friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that can do no more.’ 5 But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear the One who, after you have been killed, has power to throw you into gehenna (everlasting fire, which is the 2nd death). Yes, I tell you, fear Him!

Do you know what it truly means to Fear אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah)? Many do not realize that we are actually commanded to fear Him. This fear keeps us in submission to His Torah (instructions) and it also keeps His favor upon our lives.

The Fear of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) means: to have a reverential awe of (fear of) אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah).

Fear is an abstract concept, but the Hebrew words translated as "fear" have a more concrete definition behind them. The first (1st) root we will examine is pachad (paw-kkad') [H6342]. Fear (pachad [H6342] - noun) came upon me, and trembling, and caused all my bones to shake (pachad [H6342] – verb). Job 4:14

In this verse, the word "fear" is the noun pachad [H6343] meaning "shaking," while the word "shake" is the verb pachad [H6342] meaning "to shake."

The second (2nd) Hebrew root is H3372 Yare (yaw-ray): a primitive root; to fear; more to revere; honor, cause to frighten; to stand in awe of; to be afraid of; fear. From Yare (H3373) to fear; revere, reverence, dreadful.

In the following verse, we will see that this verb means "fear" in the sense of what we would consider fear.

And he said, I heard your voice in the garden and I feared (H3372 Yare (yaw-ray) because I was naked and I hid myself. Genesis 3:10

In the next verse, we see the same Hebrew word in a more positive context.

You will revere (H3372 Yare (yaw-ray) אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) your Aluah and you will serve him and in his Name you will swear. Deuteronomy 6:13

Many would conclude from these two (2) passages this Hebrew word has two (2) different meanings, fear and reverence. This assumption is made with many Hebrew words, but this is caused by an understanding of the Hebrew vocabulary from a non-Hebraic perspective. Each Hebrew word has only one (1) meaning but can have different applications. The literal concrete meaning of Yare is a "flowing of the gut," which can be applied to "fear" or "reverence. Essentially, this "flowing of the gut" feeling is to be in the presence of something so amazing that you could feel it in your body. False fear can be found in your body too. But Yare feels different. " Have you ever been so scared or been in the presence of something so amazing that you could feel it in your gut? This "feeling" is the meaning of this word. The Hebrews were emotional people, and in many cases their words are describing a "feeling," rather than an "action."

The fear (Yirah (yir-aw' -H3374) of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the Kadosh (holy) is understanding. Proverbs 9:10

The word "fear" in the this verse is the noun Yirah (yir-aw') (H3374), derived from the verb Yarah. The common understanding of this verse is if one is afraid of or in great awe of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah), he will have wisdom, but as we shall see, this is not consistent with its use in the Hebrew language. The Hebrew for "fear of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)" (as found in the verse above) is written with two (2) nouns, Yirat אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) (Yirat is a feminine noun ending with the letter ה (He), such as Yirah, is used in the construct state, the ה (He) is converted to a ת (Tav), in this case it becomes Yirat. When a noun precedes another noun, the first (1st) noun is in the construct state, meaning it is connected to the second (2nd) noun, the two (2) words together forming one concept. An example of a construct noun can be found in the phrase Malkut Alahym (kingdom of God)." Notice the first (1st) noun, "kingdom," belongs to the second (2nd) noun, "Alahym (God)."

Below is a complete list of construct phrases from the book of Genesis where the second (2nd) word in the construct is "אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)."

- The Voice of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Genesis 3:8
- The Face of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Genesis 4:16
- The Name of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Genesis 4:26
- The Eyes of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Genesis 6:8
- The Garden of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Genesis 13:10
- The Word of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Genesis 15:1
- The Malak (Angel) of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Genesis 16:7
- The Way of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Genesis 18:19
- The Mount of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) Genesis 22:14

Notice in every instance the first (1st) word in the construct (voice, word, etc) belongs to the second (2nd) word of the construct (אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah). So, why do we think the word "fear" in the construct phrase "fear of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)" is "our" fear and not אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)'s? We know אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) cannot "fear," but as pointed out previously, the Hebrew verb Yare literally means "to flow out of the gut." Now the question becomes, "What flows out of the gut of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah)?"

Let's look at two (2) other constructs, which will shed some light on what "the fear of אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah)" might be.

But his delight is in the Torah (instruction/law) of אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) ; and in his Torah (instructions/law) does he meditate day and night Psalm 1:2

The Hebrew for "the Torah (instruction/law) of אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah)" is torat אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah). We previously defined the word torah (H8451) (Torat is the construct form of the feminine noun torah) as teachings or instructions. It is derived from the verb Yarah (H3384) meaning "to throw" (in the sense of flowing) and is closely related to the verb Yare which we are currently examining. Not only are they related in the sense both are from the same parent root, Yar, but they are also related by definition.

The second (2nd) construct is found in Judges 3:10. And the Ruach (Spirit) of אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) came upon him...

In the construct Ruach of אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) we find the word Ruach, meaning wind (another type of "flowing"), which can also mean the character of an individual.

What flows out of the gut of אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah)? His Torah (instructions/teachings) and his character. Now, let's take another look at Proverbs 9:10, but this time from a Hebrew perspective.

The flowings (torah) Yirah - the instructions/teachings and character (Ruach) of אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) is the beginning of wisdom (H2451 chokmah (khok-maw') - the ability to distinguish between good and bad): and an intimate relationship with the special one is understanding.

A primary and basic element in the fear of אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) is revelation.

Deuteronomy 4:1-15 opens with a call to Yisrael to hold tight to the words of אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) (v.1-3), which is equivalent to clinging to אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) Himself (v.4-5). Moshe (Moses) stresses that it is the possession of this verbal revelation which is both their national wisdom and their point of distinction (v.6-8). So they must hold fast the words and the memory of their encounter with אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) (v.9-10).

Deuteronomy 4:10 reads: "...the day that you stood before אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) your Aluah (God) at Horeb, אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) said to me, 'Gather the people to me, that I may let them hear my words, so that they may learn to fear me all the days that they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.'"

From this verse and the larger context I isolate two (2) observations:

1. "Fear" here clearly is not merely an emotion—or else I think that the fire and all (v.11) would have done the trick.
2. "Fear" here is something that must be learned, and that requires revelation from אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah). אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) Commanded that the people hear His words "so that they may learn to fear" Him, and that they might teach the fear of אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) to their children.

And then we see in verses (12-14) where אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) Himself directs the spotlight in that entire encounter. Darkness, clouds, fire, the very voice of אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah). Is that where אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) fixes their attention? No. In fact, אֱיָאֵל (Yahuah) expressly says, "You heard the sound of words, but saw no form; there was only a voice” (v. 12b). He goes on to relate at length the fact that He revealed and inscribed the Ten (10) Commandments (v. 13) and Commanded Moshe (Moses) to teach them “Statutes and Rules” that they might do them (v. 14).

There was no form, only the word of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) (v. 15). אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) emphasizes His word, and specifically stresses that He spoke to them, that He rendered Himself quotable. Therefore, if anyone wishes to learn to fear אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) today, he will not chase off after reports of supernatural outbreaks here and there. Instead, he will open his Scripture, and he will pray that אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) opens his heart to hear His voice speaking through it, and will teach him to fear אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) thereby (Psalms 119:18; Hebrews 3:7).

The point comes up again in Deuteronomy 31:9–13, where Moshe (Moses) Commanded the Levites to read the Word of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) to the people at their national assembly “in order that they may hear and learn and fear אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) your Aluah (God), and be careful to observe all the words of this Torah (instructions/law)” (v. 12, emphases added), and that their children may also hear, and learn to fear אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) (v. 13).

What אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) stresses is the reading of His Word as essential to Yisraelites coming to fear Him.

Deuteronomy 31:13 is worth further emphasis, in that אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) expressly declares that this is how the children “who have not known” would learn to fear Him. “Have not known” what? In context, they have not known His miraculous deeds (11:2). By saying this, אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) is indicating that the truth and power of His Word are sufficient, not only sufficient, but superior.

Leviticus 19:32; 25:17, 35 & 36, 43... Fear of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) is a Commandment. Fear (H3372) ‘Aluah אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) made Solomon an extremely wise man, and part of the Knowledge tells us to be in the fear (H3374) of אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) all day long Proverbs 23:17; Deuteronomy 5:28 & 29.

אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) has said that it would be well with us and our children forever Proverbs 10:27; 19:23...if we fear (H3372) Him (Jeremiah 32:36-40...if we fear (H3372) Him, we will not turn aside. Deuteronomy 6:1 & 2, 13, 24 & 25; 8:5 & 6; 10:12 & 13, 20; 13:4; 14:22 & 23; 17:14-19...Fearing (H3372) אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) is walking in the Torah.

Jeremiah 32:39 I will Give them one (1) Heart and one (1) way, that they may Fear Me forever, for their own good and the good of their children after them.

Jeremiah 32:40 I Will make with them an Everlasting Covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the Fear of ME in their hearts, that they may not turn from ME.

For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Yisrael after those days, declares אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah): I will put my Torah (instructions/law) within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their Aluah (God), and they shall be my people. Jeremiah 31:33, Hebrews 10:16, Hebrews 8:10

Deuteronomy 6:24 אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) Commanded us to obey all these decrees and to Fear אֱלֹהִים (Yahuah) our Aluah the Almighty-One, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive.

Deuteronomy 25:17-19 ...Those that do not fear (H3373) אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) are ruthless and cold...Amalaq did not fear אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah): his remembrance was blotted out from under Shamyim (Heavens).

Psalms 86:11 Teach me your way, אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah), that I may rely on Your Trustworthiness; give me an undivided heart, that I May Fear Your Name.

In Proverbs 15:33, the fear of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) is described as the "discipline" or "instruction" of wisdom.

Believers are not to be scared of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah). We have no reason to be scared of Him. We have His promise that nothing can separate us from His love (Romans 8:38-39). We have His promise that He will never leave us or forsake us (Hebrews 13:5). Fearing אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) means having such a reverence for Him that it has a great impact on the way we live our lives. The fear of אַיָּאֵל (Yahuah) is respecting Him, obeying His Torah (instructions/teachings), submitting to His discipline, and worshipping Him in awe.
